PROFILE

Hello, and thank you for reviewing my resume! I'm a graphic designer and fine-artist that is passionate about what I do...I'm crazy about making things look cool and communicate a clear message. No matter the client, concept or deadline I strive to give clients the focused attention they deserve! My career goal is to expand my knowledge and contribute my conceptual and creative design skills to enhance the marketing/promotional goals of an established company.

"You don't have to know everything, you just need to have the courage to explore and know how to find the answers you seek."
